

Secure Payment

How secure are credit card payments on Plixur?

All credit card information sent to Plixur is encrypted using secure socket layer technology (SSL), and once received, it is stored in a PCI compliant environment. This data is not shared between buyers and sellers.

Plixur follows generally accepted industry standards to protect other personal information that's submitted to us, both during transmission and after Plixur receives it.

